Contents

Airi-Alina Allaste, Andy Bennett
Lifestyles in former socialist society................................................................. 9

PART I. CONTEXTUALISING LIFESTYLE TRENDS IN ESTONIA ..................29

Leeni Hansson
From plan to market: major trends in life satisfaction and subjective well-being......................................................................................... 31

Maaris Raudsepp, Indrek Tart, Eda Heinla
Continuity and change of value profiles in 1985-2008.................................. 53

Katrin Paadam, Liis Ojamäe Continuities of residential cultures. Re-inventing identities in single-family houses........................................................................................... 75

Barbi Pilvre Estonian men’s lifestyle magazine ‘Mees’: a manual of masculine identity in a transition society ............................................................................ 97

PART II. LIFESTYLE CHOICES AND IDENTITIES IN TRANSFORMING SOCIETY.............................................................................. 123

Katrin Paadam, Kristel Siilak, Liis Ojamäe Social construction of identities in a cross-cultural experience of creating and designing homes ........................................................................... 125

Marion Pajumets, Jeff Hearn Migrant career women’s discursive (re)constructions of their domestic partners’ masculine identities............................................................ 151

Katrin Tiidenberg
How does online experience inform our sense of self? NSFW blogger identity narratives................................................................................. 177

Kadri Aavik
Strategies for managing difficulties related to employment:
narratives of Russian-speaking women in Estonia ........................................... 203
Airi-Alina Allaste, Mikko Lagerspetz
Just how political is the personal? Estonian eco-village activism as lifestyle and as life politics .................................................. 225

Maarja Kobin
Drinking culture among young Estonian adults........................................... 241

Contributors........................................................................................................ 263